

Austin, Texas
March, 30, 2009

This cookbook came from Fay (Cross) Keene who lived across the street from me in Aruba. She was 13 years older than I was born. She now lives in Dallas, Texas.

The cookbook is mimeographed and the pages are 8.5 x 11.0, punched for three and two hole binders. The three ring binder this cook book came in is a standard Lago issue for the time. The paper is very brittle and some of the punched holes in the pages are torn so the page no longer stays in the binder.

I did not see a recipe from my mother but I recognized a lot of the ladies who contributed to the book. Maybe you can find your mother, grandmother or great-great mother's, and maybe even great-great-great for some of you, recipes. If you find a recipe from a family member please let me know, email at dje9537459@austin.rr.com

There was a couple of references to placing the mixture in the "Ice Box", as well as a recipe for "ARUBA WHIPPED CREAM" using "Kilm".

I would guess this cookbook was produced sometime during the war. There is a handwritten note on the back page and four children are named. I do not know of any other Dan living in Aruba at that time so that may have referred to me.

There was a blank page between each section which I did not scan. However the section between Meats and Salads had a hand written note which I did scan.

There was also some handwritten recipes as well a cutting from a newspaper, these are also included.

Now that the cookbook is scanned I have placed the pages in protective plastic sleeves and will turn the book as well as a CD of the scanned pages over the University of Texas Aruba Archives for safe keeping.

4 medium size potatoes	2 medium sized carrots
3 " " onions	1 lb. round steak, cut thin
1/2 lb. sliced bacon (Canadian style)	Salt and pepper
1 cup cold water

Prepare this dinner in a baking pan, large saucepan or skillet with a lid. It is important to have a lid that fits the utensil.

Wash, peel, and thinly slice the potatoes; wash scrape and slice the carrots; peel and slice and onions. Cut the round steak across the grain into little strips about 2 inches long and half an inch wide. (If ordinary bacon is used, halve the slices. Now place all the ingredients in the cooking utensil as follows:

First put the bacon in, spreading it over the bottom of the pan. Then distribute the steak in a layer over the bacon and sprinkle a little black pepper over it. Put in a layer of onion and carrots and sprinkle with a little salt and pepper. On top of all put the thinly sliced potatoes and sprinkle with a little salt and pepper. Put the pan over the fire and start cooking. After 3 minutes, add the cup of water and put on the lid. Cook for 45 minutes over a very slow fire, at which time water will have cooked into the ingredients.

Salt and pepper	1/2 cup sour cream (or 1/2 cup cream and 1/4 lb. mushrooms)

Sear the meat in two tablespoonfuls fat. (Do not put in all the meat at once, as it is apt to release its juice and stew without browning, simply add a few pieces at a time as the others become brown) Add onion and cook until light brown. Add salt, pepper and the paprika, lower flame and cover, allowing it to steam a few minutes. Add two cups hot water and simmer one hour. Add bread crumbs and simmer another hour, stirring occasionally.

Just before serving, add the sour cream. Place in a deep platter and surround with vegetables and rice, or riced potatoes. (Sour cream gives a delicious flavor to the gravy). However, if sweet cream is used, the dish is improved by adding mushrooms with the bread crumbs.

MRS. C. E. BURNS

SCOTCH BROTH

3 lb. Neck of Mutton or runner of beef; 5 quarts cold water; teaspoonful Pearl Barley, well washed in cold water; vegetables. A nice fresh Marrow Bone makes as good broth as either Beef or Mutton.
 When water is hot put in beef and barley. Let water boil, then throw in one teaspoonful salt. This causes scum to rise. Skim. Add 1 small turnip or half large one, but into dice; 3 leeks cut small, 1 small carrot cut into dice, dessertspoonful of moist sugar, pepper and salt to taste. Let boil a few minutes after vegetables are added with lid off. If lid is left on, certain salts in vegetables cannot escape in steam, and some persons will find broth disagreeable. Some people add a cabbage, but it must be young and fresh. A quarter of an hour before ready, add one carrot grated, and, if possible, a good tablespoonful minced parsley. Cook very thoroughly and slowly, and be careful to skim now and again. Attention to this makes such a difference to flavor. Boil three hours, taking the meat out when cooked two hours, and reheating at the last. Lift meat to hot dish. Put a little broth around beef and serve. If broth is for persons of weak digestion, scald vegetables before adding to broth, by covering them for ten minutes with boiling water. If onions are substituted for leeks, pour boiling water over them and let them soak for ten minutes, then add to broth.
 For a small family, 1 lb. of mutton would be sufficient and correspondingly less water etc.
